Section 3:

CODE OF ETHICS

3.01      Ethics Policy

It is the policy of the County to carry out its mission in accordance with the strictest ethical guidelines and to ensure that County members and employees conduct themselves in a manner that fosters public confidence in the integrity of the County, its processes, and its accomplishments. Failure to adhere to the standards of ethical conduct may subject an employee to discipline, up to and including removal, pursuant to Section 13 of this Manual as well as criminal prosecution in certain cases.

3.02      Compliance with Ohio Ethics Laws

County officials and employees are required to abide by the State of Ohio's ethics laws, as found in the Ohio Revised Code and as interpreted by the Ohio Ethics Commission and Ohio courts. A copy of these laws will be provided to each employee upon commencement of their employment with the County. These laws are also available at www.ethics.ohio.gov. Each employee shall be required to sign a form acknowledging receipt of this document and the form shall be placed in each employee's personnel file.

3.03      General Standards of Ethical Conduct

The following is a non-exclusive general summary of the restraints on the conduct of all County officials and employees.

No County official or employee shall:

- Use their public position to obtain any benefit for themselves, an immediate family member (as defined in Section 9.03 of this Manual), or anyone with whom they have a business or employment relationship;
- Solicit or accept anything of value from anyone doing business with the County;
- Solicit or accept employment from anyone doing business with the County, without prior written authorization from a Director or higher-level County official. The official or employee must first withdraw from any decision-making activity affecting the party offering employment and the County must approve the withdrawal;
- Use or disclose confidential information protected by law, unless appropriately authorized;

EXHIBIT A

- Be paid or accept any form of compensation for personal services rendered on a matter before the County or the departments, offices, agencies and/or other bodies reporting to it;
- Hold or benefit from a contract with, authorized by, or approved by the County (see Revised Code Section 2921.42 for exceptions);
- Vote, authorize, recommend, or in any other way use their position to secure approval of a County contract in which themselves, an immediate family member (as defined in Section 9.03 of this Manual), or anyone with whom they have a business or employment relationship, has an interest;
- Solicit or accept payment for services provided as an officer or employee of the County;
- During public service, and for one year after leaving public service, represent any person, in any fashion, before any public agency with respect to a matter in which the official or employee personally participated while serving with the County; or
- Use, or authorize the use of, their title, the name Cuyahoga County, or the County's logo in a manner that suggests impropriety, favoritism, or bias by the County or the official or employee.

3.04      "Moonlighting" Policy

The County does not prohibit an employee from securing additional employment outside of their employment with the County, so long as the following conditions are met:

- The employee provides notice of their outside employment to Human Resources prior to beginning work with the second employer;
- The employee's outside employment does not interfere in any way with their ability to perform the duties of their position with the County; and
- The employee's outside employment does not place the employee in violation of the County's Code of Ethics (see Section 3), including, but not limited to, creation of a conflict of interests.

NOTE: Individual Department's may have "moonlighting policies" that require that employees place Department Management on notice of additional employment outside of their employment with the County. Department management, however, shall not prohibit an employee from pursuing additional employment unless one of the above-cited conditions is not met. Employees should consult their Departmental policies and procedures manual for more information.

3.05      Political Activity

No employee in the classified service of the County shall directly or indirectly solicit or receive, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting or receiving, any assessment, subscription, or contribution for any political party or for any candidate for public office. Nor shall any employee in the classified service of the County be an officer in any political organization or take part in politics other than to vote as the officer or employee pleases and to express freely political opinions.

- Display of political materials in the employee's home or on the employee's property;

An employee that is considering in engaging in any political activity that may potentially be prohibited under this policy should consult with Human Resources for guidance. An employee who engages in any of the prohibited activities listed above may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including removal.

3.06      Employment of Relatives

Relationship to another individual employed by the County will not constitute a bar to initial employment. The County extends equal consideration to all applicants and candidates for employment. Neither positive nor negative weight shall be considered when a relationship exists with another County employee.

To preclude actual favoritism or the appearance of favoritism in the employment relationship, no employee shall take any part in the selection process for a position for which a relative is an applicant. In addition, an individual may not be assigned or accept employment in a department in which supervisory authority and/or responsibility directly affecting that department is provided by a relative of the individual. Employees who become related as a result of marriage (their own or that of a relative) will be transferred to another work unit. An employee will not participate in decisions involving a direct benefit to relatives such as employment, retention, appraisal, promotion, salary, and leave of absence.

For purposes of this Section, “relatives” include anyone who is related as husband, wife, father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, nephew, niece, father-in-law, mother-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepson, stepdaughter, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother or half sister.
