WHEREAS, the preamble of the Charter of Cuyahoga County asserts the need for focused, effective and accountable leadership in Cuyahoga County; and,

WHEREAS, the preamble of the Charter of Cuyahoga County further asserts the need for collaborative leadership with Cleveland, suburbs and others within the public and private sectors; and,

WHEREAS, Cleveland State University, the Greater Cleveland Partnership, and the Cleveland Foundation have pledged to collaborate in the development of a civic training program for public officials in Cuyahoga County; and,

WHEREAS, Cleveland State University and Cuyahoga County Council staff have designed a pilot training program as a proof of concept for testing and evaluation; and,

WHEREAS, the Northeast Ohio City Council Association has committed to endorse and provide advice and support to the pilot training program designed by Cleveland State University; and,

WHEREAS, Mayor Georgine Welo, President of the Cuyahoga County Mayors and City Managers Association, has pledged to support the pilot training program and promote the program to the leadership of the Association; and,

WHEREAS, it is necessary that this Resolution become immediately effective in order to allow the participating organizations adequate time to effectively promote the program.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNTY COUNCIL OF CUYAHOGA COUNTY, OHIO:

SECTION 1. The County Council hereby supports the establishment by Cleveland State University and its collaborative partners of a civic training program for public officials in Cuyahoga County.
